Metelytsia celebrates Malanka

Sweet memories revisited at Malanka 2016

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The name of Elk Point's Metelytsia Ukrainian Dance Club means 'whirling snow,' but Friday night's whirling snow failed to discourage a large, appreciative crowd from filling the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre with excitement and applause Saturday night as the club hosted its annual Malanka celebration.

Marushka, the traveling gypsy storyteller, was back as mistress of ceremonies again for her 12th annual visit, and said the celebration was a "little bit late" for the actual date of Ukrainian New Year's, but that the 261 people, from babas and gidos to a newborn baby, didn't mind waiting a few days to enjoy the feasting and fun that Malanka brings.

Metelytsia has been part of Elk Point for 37 years, Marushka noted, which made this year's storyline, 'Memories,' very fitting for the occasion.

Club president Melissa Rogal offered a warm welcome to the crowd and added that "so much preparation" goes into this annual event, from choreography and costumes to setting the stage and preparing the meal featuring many traditional Ukrainian dishes.

This year for the first time, one of those well-executed examples of choreography set the mood for the evening, as senior dancers Abby Baker, Morgan Baker, Kira Brunner, Bryce Osinchuk and Jaden Plaska and intermediates Katelyn Boratynec, Paige Henderson, Sam Henderson, Dalton Reed, Ty Smereka, Rhianna Bjorkman, Mykaela Verenka, Sadie Baker, Charlie Rogal and Hank Rogal took to the stage before dinner to show their prowess with the spirited steps of the Hutzul Tanets, which this year included building a most impressive mountain with the male performers.

Interagency starts off 2016 with good news

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Interagency Health and Wellness Committee started off the new year with good news, as Kristen Peleshok, facility manager at Elk Point Healthcare Centre, reported that the recruitment process for a third physician is going well, with both local doctors "very engaged in the process" and ready to have help with their case load and on-call duties. Interviews will be held in mid-February.

Roof repairs to the entire Healthcare Centre will begin in early February and be complete by the end of March, she reported.

Peleshok added that all staffing is adequate at this time and a part-time unit clerk position has been added at Long Term Care. She was happy to report that although a contingency plan for staffing had been put in place for the Christmas season, "we never had to use it."

"Anything that bodes well for the healthcare centre makes us happy," Town Coun Lorne Young said on behalf of the town regarding the progress that had been made. He also reported that Municipal Sustainability Initiative grants had been doled out at the last council meeting. "Nobody got what they asked for," he noted, "We're holding some back for emerging needs."

County Coun. Dwight Dach was unable to attend the meeting but had sent word that money has been set aside to assist with doctor recruitment if it is needed.

RCMP investigate attempted Break and Enter

SGT. B. LAROCQUE
Elk Point RCMP

On Jan. 19th at approximately 12:05 a.m. the Elk Point RCMP received a report of a commercial alarm at the Jet Link convenience store in Heinsburg Alberta. The Elk Point RCMP attended the scene but the suspects had already departed. Investigation revealed that two vehicles, a newer model dark Dodge Ram and an older model silver truck drove into the parking lot. Two suspects exited the vehicles and approached the store. The suspects attempted to gain entry by prying at the door causing significant damage. The suspects did not gain entry and fled the scene.

The Elk Point RCMP are looking for the public's help in identifying the suspects. If you have any information, please contact the Elk Point RCMP at 780-724-3964 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

All is quiet in this area on the influenza front, Christal Brodziak reported, although a number of cases and five flu-related deaths have been reported across the province. More flu vaccine was administered here this season than a year earlier, and the vaccine is still available for anyone who has not yet received it.

Loris Kozina said there are currently two vacancies at Heritage Lodge, but Fort George Manor and Buckingham House are at capacity.

Tracy Yaremko reminded the group that Brain Injury Network webinars continue to be available on the Human Services website.

Diana Anderson reported that the Zone 5 Alberta Council on Aging met with MLAs Colin Paquette and David Hanson to discuss health and seniors' concerns, including the installation of sprinkler systems in existing facilities. The need for seniors' housing is "an increasing demographic," and Hanson will push forward on that again, she said.

Chamber of commerce president Jonny Nielsen attended the meeting to inquire about the best means to determine how much interest there would be in privately owned seniors housing in Elk Point and if the MD of St. Paul Foundation would have an interest in creating more affordable housing.

Young said the Foundation is "very much on side" with the concept, but that no funding is currently available.

Nielsen noted that with the current downturn, contractors are "open for business" and that grant funding could be available for this type of project. He expressed hope that the FCSS department might be able to assist with determining what need there is for affordable seniors' housing in the community.

Elk Point Seniors' Recreation Centre continues to be a busy place, and Margaret Modin noted that it has apparently been too busy on weekday mornings to facilitate the usually prompt snow removal in the parking lot.

Terry Shankowski reported that Santas Anonymous had an exceptionally busy year, with over 50 hampers helping to fill "a really big need." Meals on Wheels are currently down to two recipients. Several welcome packages have gone out to new families in town. The income tax preparation for seniors will begin in late February when forms become available, and she predicts the volunteers will be very busy with this program.

Canada Day Committee gearing up for fundraising

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point Canada Day Committee expressed concern that funding this year's July 1 celebrations may be a challenge.

The federal grant application has been submitted, and there was sufficient funding left from last year to put deposits on the fireworks and the bounce houses, but the struggling economy may mean that donations from local businesses are smaller than usual and the event's budget will need to be trimmed accordingly.

It was suggested that while businesses may not have cash to donate, they may be willing to donate in kind, such as bringing in lighting for the stage or donating time to help with one of the events.

The events lineup is similar to other years, and will start off with the Friends of the Library's pancake breakfast. That event was confirmed at last week's library board meeting, with the crew confident that they can recruit sufficient volunteers to serve the hungry crowd.

The RCMP will be invited to host their open house again this year, prior to the parade.

One way of trimming the budget would be to replace the marching band that has traditionally led the parade with a bagpiper, and this is currently being considered.

Entertainment for the afternoon stage performance was also discussed at last week's meeting, and the committee is hoping to find a headline act that is both crowd-pleasing and affordable.

Along with the bounce houses, this year's younger crowd will enjoy Loopyball, a new attraction that has proved popular in other communities, and Recreation Coordinator Jena Colbourne is also looking into some high interest games for the older children.

The committee is considering adding a vendors' area to the event, and agreed that there would be room in the A. G. Ross Arena to house a number of booths as well as the Chili Cook-off, which proved to be a very popular event last year.

The Survivor Challenge and beer gardens are also back on the agenda, and the committee hopes to hear more details from representatives from those groups at their March meeting.

Canada Day Idol has a brand new coordinator, Brienne Greening, and will also have a new location. The committee has decided to hold the competition on the same Canada Day stage as the afternoon performance, which will already be set up with bleachers and the sound system. The committee also hopes to have an on-line registration available to streamline entering this year's event.

The fireworks are booked and will once again cap off an exciting and fun filled day for Elk Point and district.

Further Ed's Community Adult Learning Program reports success

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

With the first set of 2016 courses already underway, Elk Point Further Education coordinator Verona Lea Flanders gave her final report on the 2015-15 Community Adult Learning Program, listing the learning opportunities provided.

These included one English Language Learning course with five participants, three employability enhancement courses, two of them on iPad for a total of 14 learners and one on iPhone for five learners. A course on bullying prevention and self-esteem building attracted 42 adult learners, while a total of 28 general interest courses brought in a total of 282 learners over that time period.

Flanders reported positive relationships with the Municipal Library and FCSS, success in finding an English as a Second Language (ESL) instructor and volunteer tutors, and success in helping newcomers to Canada to cope with the challenges they faced as a result of limited English skills.

iPad and ESL courses are back on the January to June course list, along with courses on blogging and basic email, camera use and photography basic.

Fitness is addressed with courses in dance fitness, no-bounce fitness and the perennial favourite stretch and tone. A series of yoga classes is slated for February and March.

A standard St. John's First Aid class, including level 'C' CPR and the use of an AED, is also planned, with the date to be announced.

Parenting classes include Books for Babies and Rhyme Time, both to be held at Elk Point Municipal Library and both free of charge, which support children's early literacy and language development.

Favourite crafts and hobbies are back on the list with one appliqué class completed last weekend and another coming up in February, and a stamping class in March, as well as the weekly daytime quilting sessions each Tuesday and Thursday. The date is yet to be announced for a watercolor painting class.

MOUNTAIN MEN - the senior and intermediate boys form a mountain as the two groups start off the show with the Hutzul Tanets.

After dinner, it was time for Baba, played by dance instructor Debbie Kachmar-Potter, and Gido, played by Bryce Osinchuk, to sit back and look at a collection of photos compiled by their granddaughter, played by Dae Smereka in the 'Memories' part of the program.

The three, along with the audience, oohed and ahed as pictures of Metelytsia dancers through the decades flashed on the big screen. A picture of Gido, then a beginner taking part in the Bee Dance, was brought to life as today's beginners, Hailey Danyluk, Jacob Petruk, Darci Kardash, Colton Scott and Brock Jacula, recreated the tale of three beekeepers discouraged by a pair of pretty little bees from harvesting their hives, until the bees agreed to share a comb or two.

A yellowed harvest time photo brought memories of hard work to Gido, while Baba remembered him sneaking away to snooze in the barn loft. The intermediate group brought that story to life with their Harvest Tanets, where the boys, tired from raking, fall asleep, and the girls sneak in and surprise them by helping with the harvest.

A newer picture of their granddaughter in their Volyn costume brought out the Junior II dancers, with Dae joined by Avery Smereka, Rylee Verenka, Chloe Bendixen, Shaylynn Klatt and Calei Penner in the high-spirited enthusiasm of the Volynski Tanets.

Memories of chilly winter weather brought the Junior I group, Brendan Scott, Anna Henderson, Charlotte Henderson, Shyanne Klatt, Hadley Smereka and Evett Smereka, onto the stage, where they danced with delight around a very realistic campfire in 'Hutzul Fire.'

Another faded photo near the end of the slide show depicted a crew industriously building a barn, a memory that lingered with Baba and Gido after they had bid a fond good night to their granddaughter and had settled down on the sofa for their evening snooze. As they dreamed, the stage filled with the intermediate and senior groups, strong young men toting lumber and tools, and lovely young women carrying baskets of lunch for the workers. The sleeping Baba and Gido, reclaiming their younger years, joined in, Gido to assist with the barn raising and Baba to visit with the ladies until it was time for everyone to join in a celebratory dance to 'This Land is Your Land.'

Following a break for the door prize draws and words of thanks to all those who collected photos for the slide show and accompanying display, assisted with stage props and preparation of costumes, the show resumed with a Transcarpathian Duet by Ty Smereka and Mykaela Verenka.

The final number followed the club's longstanding tradition, this year with the intermediate dancers performing the national dance of the Ukraine, the thrilling moves of the Hopak.

GYPSY Marushka tells a tall tale.

BEE DANCE, PAST AND PRESENT - "I remember that," Gido tells Baba and granddasughter Dae as they look through the old-time photos of when he was a youngster in the Ukrainian Dance Club, above. Below are today's beginners with their version of the same dance. More photos, Page 5.

In closing, Marushka gave special recognition to Doris Osinchuk, who "worked hard this year to make Malanka memorable" for her son Bryce, who will be graduating in June and leaving the club.

Also leaving the club at the end of this year is their instructor, whose history with the club stretches back to the 1980s. Kachmar-Potter took a few years off, but later came back and has been with Metelytsia ever since. Brianne Greening presented her with a gift on behalf of the club, while Albert Boratynec, whose children and grandchildren benefitted from her teaching, presented her with decorated "Ukrainian coat hangers" (spikes) and a handmade diamond willow rake, similar to those the boys used in the harvest dance. "You left your mark on this community," Boratynec said. "You've made many friendships here."

Tradition lives on

As sure as January arrives, so does the wonderfully colourful traditions that surround the Ukrainian New Year celebrations that are known as Malanka.

Over the years, Elk Point's Metelytsia Dance Club has celebrated this joyous occasion in the crowded Elks Hall, the very crowded Armistice Hall, the more spacious Elk Point Elementary School, and most recently, in the best location of all, the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre.

Wherever it took place, the event has been a huge success, with the audience delighting in the food, the costumes, the music and the dancing, as generation succeeded generation in the spotlight.

Thanks again, Metelytsia, for keeping your traditions alive and your New Year well celebrated!

Added attractions for Family Day weekend

JENA COLBOURNE
Recreation Coordinator

There's some special events coming up for Family Day that I'm very excited about.

On Friday, Feb. 12th, the Elk Point Allied Arts Society is bringing in Bobs & Lolo! This duo will have your kids singing, dancing and playing the night away. They're features on Treehouse, and if you have kids under 7 you probably know all of Bobs and Lolo's tunes... I know I do!

What's really great is the Allied Arts is putting the show on as a fundraiser so they are able to bring more exciting programming to Elk Point. As well, they will be able to keep rental costs down and allow great events to be hosted at the centre. They've always been a great supporter of non-profit events, and have been known to rent the hall for next to nothing for these events.

Bobs and Lolo is very family friendly and a great opportunity for grandparents to take the kiddos to a show and give the parents a little night out... Hint! Hint! Doug and Donna.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $15 for kids. You can call Sharon to book a reserved seat at 780-645-9774. And check your mail for a super fun colouring contest that could win you a four-pack of tickets!

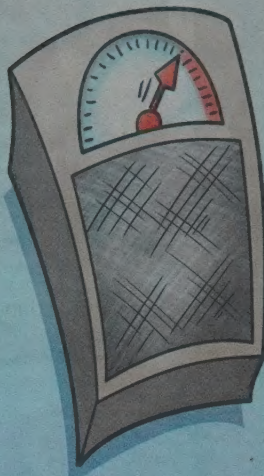

On Monday, Feb. 15th the Town of Elk Point and the Rec Department are hosting "Celebrating the A. G. Ross Arena Family" for Family Day. We will be holding free public skating from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. From 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. there will be a fun hockey game between Elk Point Emergency Forces and the Minor and Pond Hockey All Stars. There will be fun games during the intermission & the initiation, micro-novice & novice teams will be putting on a skills demonstration during the first period intermission. The Elk Point Skating Club will be putting on a show and demonstrating their solos during the day, as well.

One of the most exciting features of the day is a reunion to honour the people who helped build the A. G. Ross Arena. It took a lot of community spirit, fundraising, dedication, and, I hear, a dare at a party to bring the arena to our community. If you'd like to find out more about the heritage of the A. G. Ross Arena, join us on Family Day.

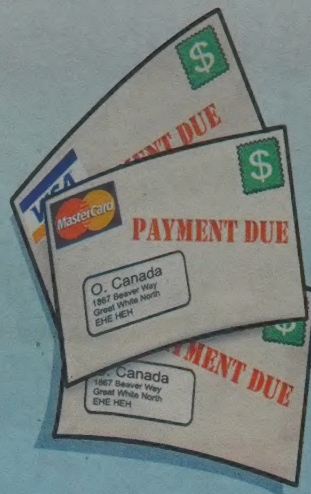

There will also be free hamburgers, hot dogs, hot chocolate and coffee served up by Town Council.

Mark it on your calendars and we'll see you on Family Day weekend!

Weather warnings? What weather warnings?

There was a storm warning all over the north east this past weekend, especially on Friday night when it dumped quite a bit of snow and created some white outs in places, but that certainly didn't stop any of our teams from traveling to play. Just like the pony express the mail must go, and hockey teams will plow through the deep snow, tough it out in 35 below or beat the pounding ice and sleet to get to their destination. Because this is Canada... and this is what we do!! Sounds like some kind of commercial, doesn't it!! Ha-ha!

Even with the forecast as bad as it was, our Midget boys and parents still headed out late Friday afternoon and took the two-hour road trip south to Irma for an 8 p.m. match. It's a good thing they went, because it was a barn burner, the game became very intense going right down to the final buzzer, ending in a 3-all tie; after the Avalanche had the winning goal waved off with three minutes left on the clock, the referees losing sight of the puck and blowing the whistle a little too soon just as it crossed the line. Irma and the Avalanche have played numerous times over the years and seem to be very evenly matched. Bowen Krider and the Odgaard brothers, 'Big O' and 'Dead Eye' Dylan scoring, 'Tricky Nick' Tucker and 'Captain Crunch' Carson Ference with the assists. Behind the mask, goalie Spencer 'the Fortress' Hardcastle played super, shutting the door late in the game and keeping this one close, because a single point is still better than no points, especially at this time of the year when it getting closer to the playoffs. On Saturday afternoon the midget team traveled to Saddle Lake but for some reason they were having trouble with their ice and the game was cancelled at the very last minute after the team had already arrived. This coming Friday night the team travels to Smoky Lake for the first game of their provincial round robins. Lets go Avalanche!!!

'Sid the Kid' in only her second year of hockey plays her position on the wing very well, she doesn't wander and stays on her point man in our end of the rink and is just absolutely marvellous at fore checking, crashing the corners and creating turnovers. The Storm outshot the Blazers but couldn't seem to get anything past their goalie. It seems to be the same story every weekend, but the girls are improving quite noticeably...Rome wasn't built in a year... this is a process... the coaching staff knows this and are in for the long haul.

SUNDAY'S 'STORM TROOPER' was 'Gorgeous Georgia' Bendixen.

On Sunday at home the Storm hosted the Lakeland combined team and once again we outshot them, this time 31 to 28. These girls have shown some character, they won't be intimidated and come to the rink determined to win, but still need lots of work on the shooting part of their game. Most of our shots are on their goalie are fairly weak, other teams seem to have a sniper or two in the line up, but... our sniper Jenna 'Precious' Poitras did manage to score on a backhand that totally fooled the goalie, assisted by Halle 'Comet' Stybel and 'Gorgeous Georgia' Bendixen. 'Gorgeous' was the Storm Trooper of the game and rightly so, she did an awesome job in our zone, clearing the puck out over the line and made a few terrific end to end rushes, including a glorious opportunity on a break away, cutting in from the wing, driving to the net hard, she just missed. At the other end of the rink Storm goalkeeper Heaven 'the Brick House' Colbourne is getting better every week too, she gobbled up the puck every time in close when the Panthers came knocking on Heaven's door, but was beaten by some of their shots going up top shelf. A good game for the little pest Alayna 'Hornet' Hladunewich who was buzzing all over the ice and also came very close to scoring.

Our Micro Novice Avalanche played amazing here at home on Saturday morning, losing a close one 8 to 7 to St. Paul. These two teams are perfectly matched and makes for a great, entertaining game for all the parents and grandparents, Braylee 'Billy Bob' Lesyk with a hat trick, 'Wyatt Earp' Fontaine with two goals and an assist, 'Notorious Nolan' Ballas and Brendan Kadutski with one goal each, Boe Johnson with a couple of assists.

Our Bantam team did not play as well as they could have in a provincial game down in Vermilion this past Wednesday night, but the good news is they still won the game 10 to 9. Lighting the lamp were Nick 'Sparky' Anderson and his sidekick 'Hot Wheels' Hayden Ludlage with a burst of speed had a hat trick each, Chase Dorey and rugged Dylan 'the Destroyer' Ference adding two goals each. Wolke 'Wolf Man' Cueva, 'Hank the Tank' Rogal, Brad 'Diesel' Canning, and 'Silent Sam' Henderson all with assists. Maybe they did take the Tigers a little too lightly because they play in the Tier 3 North East League and our team is cleaning up in the Tier 2 of that same league. This may have had some effect; the boys perhaps didn't come prepared mentally for the battle the Tigers put up. Even still they have a one goal lead going into game two and also have the home ice advantage and should have a big crowd to cheer them on...that's tomorrow night at 7 p.m. Don't miss it. Come out cheer they boys and girl, 'Raging Paige', on to victory!

The Atom No. 1 team traveled to Marwayne on Wednesday night to play the Ice Dogs in their first provincial game, losing 2 to 0. Coming home for the second game on Sunday, the team played very well and had 22 shots on the Ice Dogs but could only find the twine once, a long point shot air mailed from point man Sam 'Spiderman' Regal, assisted by workhorse Rylee 'the Rocket' Warawa. A very good game for goalie Vanden 'Super Mario' Moroziuk who face 31 shots and turned away all of them but three. His big husky D-man Dean 'the Machine' Ockerman and the tiny 'D-man, Gavin 'Giver' Kadutski both doing a fine job of blocking lots of the shots before they reached 'Super Mario'. Rookie winger Wyatt Pavoll was very close to tipping one in but he was tripped up just as he reached the goalie. On Saturday at home in league play against Wainwright, the game ended in a 2-all tie. 'King Kong Konnor' Poitras with his patented wrist shot scoring both goals for the Avalanche.

The Atom No. 2 team had no problem defeating Bonnyville in their first provincial game last Monday night, winning by a 10-goal margin, taking the first two-game total-point series in one game. The team will now sit and wait for the winner of CNN and St. Paul.

Wayne Gretzky always said he was just as happy getting an assist, than scoring himself. One thing that coach James Capjack likes to focus on is passing and the importance of team play and assists. At the Atom level it seems every team has a player or two who score the majority of the goals, but it takes a whole teams effort to win. Saturday the Atom No. 2 team showed the importance of this as a number of players were credited with assists in this one winning over St. Paul 10 to 2. Defenseman Cee Jay Quinney, 'St. Nic' Penner and Josef 'Red' Theriault all with great shots from the point and all with three assists each. Fore checking forwards Cash 'CC' Capjack, Nathaniel Cousins, Kaleb 'Formula One' Flamand, and Ryan 'Ram Rod' Cameron all getting a helper as well, Landon 'the Magnificent' Malachowski and Cee Jay with one goal each, 'Mic Jager' Fontaine blew a few more past them, and he is on the sheet with an assist.

The Pee wee boys traveled to Mallaig on Saturday afternoon, winning 7 to 1. Odin 'the Wall' Smith, who is celebrating his birthday today, with a goal. If the 'Wall' gets much bigger I think I will have to call him Mt. Everest! On Sunday the team traveled to Plamondon to play a double header, winning both games quite easily.

Hockey

It's a great idea if you can get the ice time, it saves money on gas, although this isn't as big a issue now with the price of oil going down below $30 a barrel, but still seems like a great idea to me, we do it all the time in baseball, why not hockey? Goalies 'Sexy Slader' Hardcastle and Ronan 'Radar'

Poulin splitting the games, doing one each, everyone on the team getting a point or two including Kobe 'the Cobra' Warawa and 'Danny Boy' Cardinal who both scored one. Unsung hero, the stay at home defenseman Jace 'the Stafford Streak' with some assists.

Over in St. Paul on the weekend our Novice Avalanche took in a tournament there, playing against three tough teams but having a great time and playing really hard. The first game was the closest, the Avalanche losing a heart breaker 2 to 1. 'Cyclone Cole' Pierce between the pipes in this one, 'Top Gunner' Crawford scoring, Charlotte Henderson winning the heart and hustle award. In the second game 'Ever-ready' Kale Hoeving strapping on the pads getting the goaltending duties, ' Good Time Charlie' Lesyk winning the heart and hustle award, ' Top Gunner' and ' Bo Diddley' Fontaine scoring.

And big Happy birthday going out to today to a wonderful promising defense woman Storm player Avery 'Whirlwind' Warawa who can really wheel with the puck!!

And now for the K. A. Campbell quote of the week. "Coaching is easy. Winning is the hard part." Last week's answer to: "I've always believed that you can think positive just as well as you can think negative." - Sugar Ray Robinson
